Reduced cost for Israel Heart Society members

The British Cardiovascular Society & Mayo Clinic are running a Cardiology Review Course in March 2011 (at the Royal College of Physicians, London). The course is matched to the European Cardiology Curriculum and is aimed at Doctors training or working in Cardiology. Israel Heart Society members can now attend the course for the reduced rate of £595 for the full 5 days (standard rate was £700). Further details of the course programme and online registration are available on the BCS website:
