

Curriculum Vitae

Klempfner Robert, MD

Born 21.9.1970, Romania, immigrated to Israel 1971.

Following elementary school and high school in Hertzlia, served in the army in the domain of informatics until September 1991.

Medical Scholl – Carol DaVilla, Bucharest Romania, graduated September 1997.

ECFMG certified in USA.

Internship – Sheba Medical Center, Tel Hashomer, Israel 1998-1999

Residency – Internal Medicine, Internal Medicine department C, Sheba Medical Center, 1999-2003

Fellowship in Cardiology, the Heart Center, Sheba Medical Center 2003-2007.

Specialist in both Internal medicine and Cardiology from 2007.

Senior cardiologist in Cardiac Rehabilitation Institute and the Sheba Heart Center, Sheba medical center, Tel Hashomer, Israel.

Medical director of medical informatics, Sheba medical center 2005-2006

Medical director – Maccabi, Multidisciplinary Heart Failure National Center, from 2009 to 6.2012. Senior investigator in the Gertner led, Heart Failure Disease Management Multisite Study.

Medical director advanced heart failure clinic, Clalit HMO 2008 - 2012

Medical director of MOMA – multidisciplinary chronic disease management initiative, collaboration between Maccabi and Gertner institute for the management of patients with heart failure and COPD (10,000 patients recruited ,100 nurses) 2012 – present .

Secretary of the Israeli Cardiac Rehabilitation Working Group, the Israeli Cardiology Association - 2009 to present.

Acting director of the Cardiac Rehabilitation Institute, Cardiac Screening Unit and the Cardiac Medical Hotel - May 2009 to August 2011.

Senior advisor for the Israeli society of the prevention of heart attacks, co-Primary Investigator in a number of national and multinational studies and registries including MADIT CRT long term multinational follow-up study, VAAST study, Israeli heart failure with preserved systolic function study and RAISE CRT multinational trial.